

Dear Buhac,

August 9, 1990

Here we are in beautiful south Alaska. Unfortunately we share this incredible wilderness with a multitude of mosquitos and other insects. Without your wonderful product, we would be miserable. We made up this poem for you:

Roses are red
Violets are blue.
Without Buhac,
we would be stew!

We were wondering if you have /sell T-shirts with your logo. IF so, we are very interested. We all sport the size XL, and if we must send a check first, please let us know.

Sincerely, Alaska State Park Volunteers
